

Burlington Business & Professional
The Leading Advocate for Women!

Young Careerist Program

The Young Careerist program recognizes and celebrates the accomplishments of young women and men between the ages of 21 and 35 for their endeavors at bettering themselves and others, professionally, personally and politically.

All candidates participate in an interview, impromptu group interaction, provide a writing sample, and prepare a four minute speech.

Show off your skills on Wednesday February 10th, 2010
from 5:00pm – 8:30pm
at the South Burlington Best Western Windjammer
Conference Center
1076 Williston Rd., South Burlington, VT.

To Be Eligible, You Must:

- 1. Be between the ages of 21 and 35*
- 2. Be or have been employed in business (includes self-employed) or the professions with at least one year of full-time work experience in her/his career area.*
- 3. Be living, working or training or continuing her/his education in the area served by the sponsoring Local organization conducting the program; and*
- 4. Understand and support the BPW mission, vision and legislative platform.*
(go to www.bpwfoundation.org and click on "Public Policy and Advocacy" for more legislative platform information)

- Be recognized for your accomplishments in your profession and community*
- Network with successful women and men in the professional and business world*
 - Improve your self-confidence and leadership skills*
 - Develop friendships and a support network*

For more information and speech topics contact:
Kim Legg Odachowski at klegg@uvm.edu

